Foreword

In the pages of this book we present our memoirs, memoirs of accomplishments and failures. Through the following events you will see and read, we hope to show you the greater factors which molded our personalities and increased our knowledge. We, the class of '50, claim only the successes we have earned and hope, in passing, that those who follow us will be inspired to even higher achievements. We face the future with wisdom and hope; therefore we visualize social accomplishments left undone by those in the past.

Dedication

To Supt. W. Z. Carter: A good friend, a trusted guide, a faithful inspiration: We, the Class of 1950, dedicate this annual.

"And gladly would he learn and gladly teach."
Chaucer

Seniors, you are soon to go forth to play your role in the drama of life. In all desirable activities you will do your part better, we believe, because of the training you have had in this school. During the years you have been in Murray High School the student body and faculty have created and maintained a high standard of scholarship, of ideals and of conduct. We are the stewards of the greater heritage today when, from afar and in our own country, ideas antipathetic of this Republic, to the bed rock principles, are being promulgated, and at a time when economic and social life is facing great perplexities. I am sure you will do your part in solving these problems and in making this a better country.

History

On Sept. 10, 1946, there entered into Murray High School the most promising group of freshmen ever to enter the portal of MHS. Forty-nine "Poor little babes lost in the woods" grew up that year under the leadership of Mr. Haron West, sponsor, and Letitia Maupin, president.

We came back a year later. Our intellect was broader, but our number smaller, only 43 this year. We lost Thomas Taylor, who joined the Navy; Graves Joyner, who went back to Tennessee; Robert King, who moved to Paris; Jimmy Rowland, who preferred work to school; Jean King, who enrolled at the Training School; Betty Murphy, who chose matrimony; Dick Berry, who moved to Washington; and Joyce Russell, who moved to Ohio. We gained three students: Hazel Dyer from the Training School; O. T. Stalls, Almo, Kentucky; and Maurice "Red" Myers. It was during our Sophomore year that we began to grasp the vision of our desired goal-graduation. All in all, the year was a successful one; but who could fail with such sponsors as Mr. Wilburn Cavitt and Mrs. Tom Rowlett and Robert Glin Jeffrey as president.

In 1948 we became juniors and gained the title of 'upperclassmen'. We were a determined group of youngsters, eager to continue what we had so bravely begun. We selected Mrs. Charles Snow and Miss Frances Grant as our leaders and Robert Glin Jeffrey as our President. This, our third year, marked a time of great gain, a gain of brains and beauty. Our new students were: Barbara Ann Ward from Corbin, Kentucky; Mary Ann Underwood, Flint, Michigan; June Overcast, Paris, Tennessee; and Jean Futrell and Wanda Burks, Almo, Kentucky. We lost Billy McDougal, Max Moore, and Maurice Myers, who quit school, and O. T. Stalls, who returned to Almo. Climaxing our Junior year, we gave the seniors a banquet at the Club House, the theme of which was the "Gold Digging Forty-niners".

On Sept. 6, 1949, we, the 47 seniors who compose the 1950 class, entered the gay old portals of Murray High to "walk the last mile of the way". This year has been one of complete victory. We have the co-operation of the entire student body and faculty in all of our endeavors. Some of the highlights have been the Progressive Dinner, the Halloween Carnival, and the arrival of our class rings. Again this year, we were given two new students to taste the last bite of success with us. They were Phil Sprunger, Mansfield, Ohio, and Euva Parker of Detroit, Michigan. There was only one who did not enjoy the happiest year of all. He was Toy Lee Barnett, who chose matrimony. Mr. W. B. Moser and Mrs. Richard Giles have been our able guides, and Clegg Austin, our president.

Soon we shall say farewell to Murray High School and to all the things which we hold so dear to our hearts. As we leave we say to the faculty:

You have given us the most precious gift of all---confidence and faith; if our lives do not live up to the high ideals you have given us it will not be because of your faults. May we only say--Thanks for everything. "We have fought a good fight, we have finished our course, and we have kept the faith". Henceforth, there is laid up for us a crown of glory, our diploma.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior class of '50, having supposedly sound metal faculties, make known and publish our last will and testament. We begrudgingly leave these Halls of Learning to venture forth into the world, using the knowledge we have secured and gaining more.

To MR. CARTER we leave our admiration.

To MR. MOSER we leave the title, "One of the Greatest Fellows We Have Ever Known".

To the entire faculty we leave the hope that they will endure the ones who follow us with the kind patience we have received.

To the JUNIOR CLASS we leave "Blood, Sweat, and Tears".

To the SOPHOMORE CLASS we leave this quotation: "Cast your diligence upon the sea of education and it will return you achievements."

To the FRESHMAN CLASS we leave the will to learn.

Each individual bestowal follows, viz:

I, JANICE MILLER, leave my ability to persuade MR. HOLLAND out of tests to all who are that cunning.

I, MARY ANN UNDERWOOD, leave my brains and dignity to LOCHIE FAYE HART, who can certainly use both.

I, JEAN FARRIS, leave my ability to snare men to CAROLYN MELUGIN.

I, JUNE OVERCAST, leave for Detroit.

We, DONALD STARKS and SAM HARRIS, leave joyously.

I, WILLIAM SMITH, leave my amorous nature to BOBBY FOY.

I, JIMMY LOVE, bequeath my creed, "Silence is Wisdom", to DAVAD OUTLAND.

We, DWAIN ADAMS and BUDDY VALENTINE, leave PROFESSOR SHULTZ with a consuming desire to fail us.

I, O. B. BOONE, bestow my gentle ways on EDWARD OVERBEY.

I, ROBERT GLIN JEFFERY, leave my athletic ability to all persons who have determination, courage, and the will to make good.

I, SANDRA SEARFOS, leave my boisterous ways to TOM SYKES.

I, JEAN FUTRELL, leave to MR. HOLLAND the many embarrassing moments he has caused me.

I, MARTHA JEAN STAGNER, bequeath my stately behavior to PEGGY ROWLAND.

I, BETTY THURMAN, leave with a GEM on my finger and a HIM on my lips.

I, ALMA JO MATHIS, bequeath my ability to make bells ring to WANDA McREYNOLDS.

I, GENE CATHEY, leave behind me many friends.

I, BETTY WEST, leave my smile to SUE McCUISTON.

I, CHARLOTTE ROBERTS, leave my pretty legs to SUE PARKER.

We, BRINDA SMITH and GLADYS MC KINNEY, leave with respect and admiration for the men Ohio produces.

I, JERRY BYNUM, leave my ability to captivate college girls to BILLY OUTLAND.

We, CHARLES WASHBURN and BOBBY CARSON, leave our ability to get along with as little effort possible to all who are that lazy.

I, JIMMIE THOMASSON, leave my glasses to all Illinois basketball officials.

I, ELSIE SLINKER, leave my exotic name to SUE JONES.

I, WANDA BURKS, leave my ability to repulse wolves to ZANN PATTON.

We, WILL ED STOKES and MAX CHURCHILL, leave....surprised at the fact.

I, NEVA FITTS, leave uncontaminated by the evils around me.

I, RICHARD SHACKLEFORD, leave my deep admiration for that PERRY girl to anyone who likes her.

We, BETTY PITTMAN and SUSIE KING, leave our lockers in A MESS.

I, EUVA NELL PARKER, leave my impressive height to LIDA WALDROP.

I, PHIL SPRUNGER, leave hurriedly to avoid further romantic entanglements.

I, JENNEL FOY, leave my chemistry books to MR. BOGGESS to use as fuel.

I, LETITIA MAUPIN, leave excess energy to ANNE FENTON.

I, BARBARA ANN WARD, leave my glamour to all girls who wish to hook class presidents.

I, HAZEL DYER, leave my conservative ways to JOAN LOVE.

I, JEAN CORN, leave my ability to handle class funds to my own profit to all future treasurers.

I, GENE DUNN, leave my car with the mechanics.

I, BOBBY EDWARDS, leave my ferocious nature to RONALD JONES.

I, DALLAS DORAN, leave my knack of getting tardy excuses from MR. MOSER to anyone who sleeps all morning.

I, WALTER MOSER, leave my straight face to MR. CAVITT.

I, CLEGG AUSTIN, leave my cute smile and dimples to BUDDY BUCKINGHAM who can use them to the best advantage.

I, PAT DARNELL, author of this document, bequeath my sympathy to the next MORON who accepts this job

(Signed) Pat Darnell, Testator.

Prophecy

(The year is 1985. It has been 35 years since the class of 1950 waved farewell to old Murray High School. A lot can happen in 35 years. The scene is in the living room of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Miller. Jackie is trying to read the evening paper while Janice rambles on and on about her old friends of '50.)

How well I remember the '50 class,
It was filled with beauty, brain, and brass;
The memories all come back again
As I think about each loving friend.

DWAIN ADAMS, better known as "BEAR", took a seat in the electric chair.

That well known singer, O. B. BOONE, sang "Seboney" and caused a typhoon.

JUNE OVERCAST, who always was so silly, has settled down since she married BILLY.

EUVA PARKER, so sweet and gay, is now MRS. NOBIE CARRAWAY. From the country GLADYS MC KINNEY fled, there was no joy after PHIL was dead.

ALMA JO thought children were next to heaven but she'd just planned on three, not thirty-seven.

NEVA FITTS has gone quite far; she's a famous silent movie star.

CHARLOTTE ROBERTS was struck by fate; because of her chemistry she had to leave the state.

SANDRA SEARFOS is the star of the arena; she's now a famous ballerina.

SUSIE KING has done her part; she's made a hit in the field of art.

ELSIE SLINKER was Texas bound when John Power's a lovely model found.

Because of her talent with her horn, her name is in lights; JEAN CORN. MR. MOSER and MRS. GILES are both great conquerors, because they chose the '50 class to sponsor.

MARTHA JEAN STAGENER finally made "Big Time" by doing bubble dances from 7 to 9.

JENNELL FOY is now a success by teaching home ec. and doing her best.

Wonderful and beautiful JEAN FARRIS is now the queen of all Paris.

BARBARA ANN WARD, lovely in face and leg, is tied up now with a boy named CLEGG.

BETTY PEARL said she wouldn't settle down, but now a man she's finally found.

That cute little girl, HAZEL DYER, now extracts teeth with wire pliers. When it comes to looks she tops the rest; that's how JEAN FUTRELL won MISS AMERICA contest.

A talented artist, BETTY JUNE WEST, now ranks higher than all the best.

BETTY THURMAN, the perfect young wife, has devoted herself to CHAD for life.

MARY ANN, who publishes the NEW YORK EDITIONS, has come to the top and has no competition.

MAX CHURCHILL'S business is doing well; they say he's better than DIGGER O'DELL.

A more talented guy you never met than CLEGG AUSTIN and his clarinet.

GENE CATHEY is playing professional ball and it is rumoured that he's grown quite tall.

They say DALLAS T. is doing quite well by working on the farm for his friend, H. L.

You all remember BOBBY CARSON; he's chauffeur for GREER GARSON. SAM HARRIS has a car, his greatest asset, because no one can ever pass it.

PAT DARNELL'S mind is very dim; his brain was just too much for him. In a lovely cottage where beauty abounds lives ROBERT GLIN with BARBARA DOWNS.

BOBBY EDWARDS turned out to be no phony; he didn't really have a toni.

JIMMIE LEE practices very hard; he's now the star St. Louis Card. CHARLES WASHBURN now has his day; he's won the part of CHARLES BOYER.

JIMMY LOVE, the photographer, has made good by making films in Hollywood.

W. B. MOSER, JR., really hit it lucky when he found his girl in Hardin, Ky.

JERRY BYNUM, known for his spunk, learned to extract odors from a skunk.

RICHARD SHACKLEFORD is the king of all the residents of SING SING. That lover boy, WILLIAM SMITH, turned out to be a great journalist. That salty sea-dog, DONALD STARKS, met his fate when he fell to the sharks.

A famous comedian, WILL ED STOKES, has made the top, and that is no joke.

BUDDY VALENTINE is driving cars with a glittering gleam all the way to New Orleans.

Not RITA HAYWORTH, but WANDA BURKS, has married and divorced twenty-nine turks.

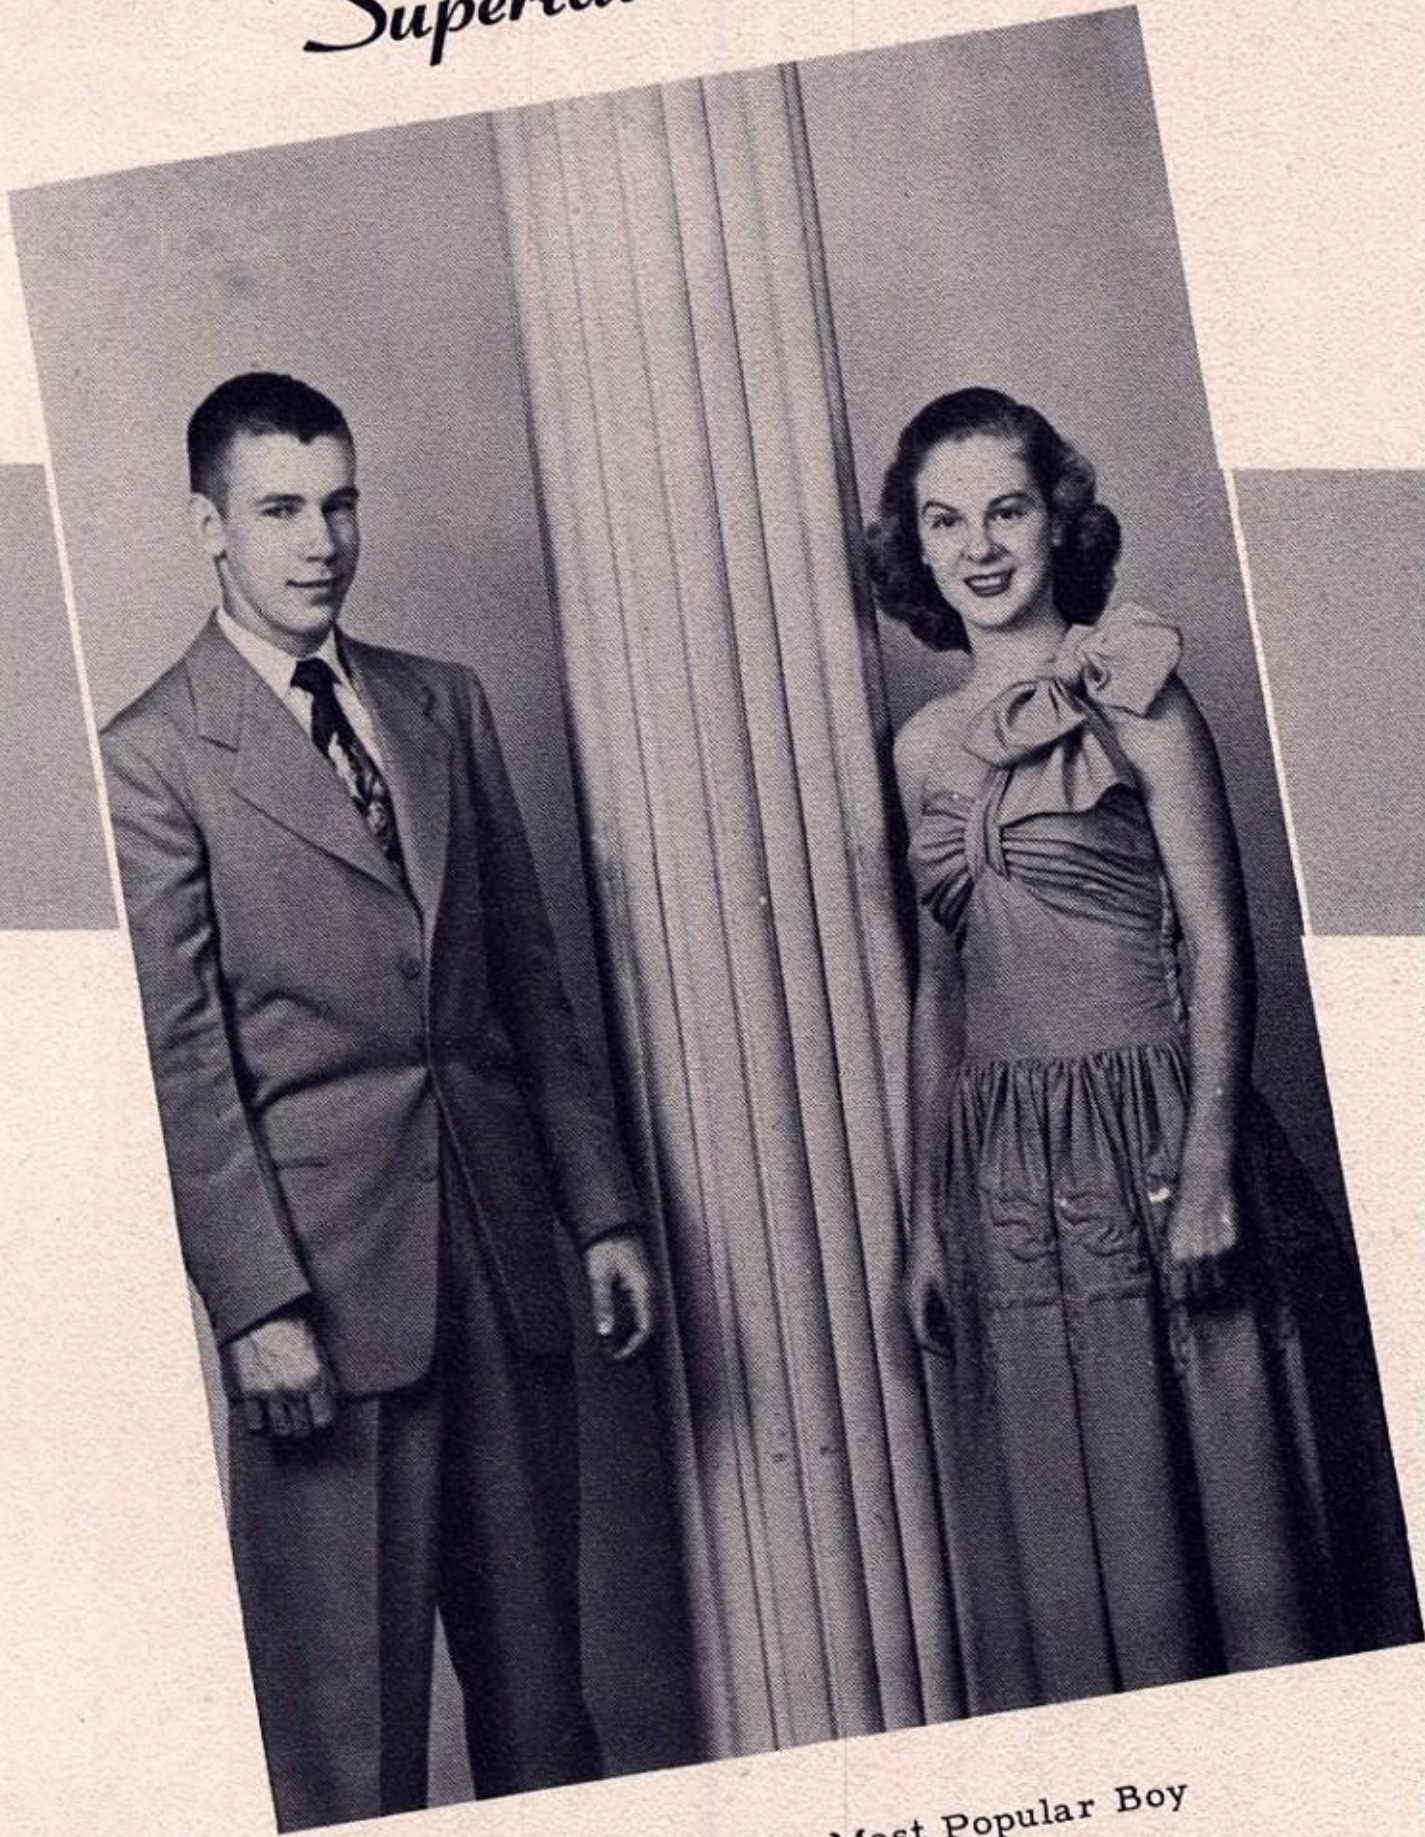

PHIL SPRUNGER was shot and buried in town; he was too cute to stay around.

When BRINDA SMITH heard that PHIL was gone, she shot herself; now they are where they belong.

LETITIA MAUPIN is the bowery star; her voice has taken her quite far. An inmate in ALCATRAZ is GENE DUNN; he always did have too much fun.

But now, I find, I have to go;
JACKIE eats more than any I know;
I better go find him a filler,
Until then, I'm yours, JANICE MILLER.

Summary

The Murray High Tigers ended their 1949 football season with a record of four wins and six losses.

Coach Ty Holland started the season with only two regulars back from last year's squad: veteran halfback Glin Jeffrey and Dwain Adams, who switched to end this year. The other positions were filled with boys who were willing but lacked the age and experience necessary for a winning team.

Summary

After dropping the first two games to Ridgely, Tenn. by a score of 14-6, and to Russellville, 19-0, the Tigers swept to three straight victories by downing Morganfield 27-6, Mayfield 20-0, and Fulton 42-6. The streak was snapped by Bowling Green by a 20-0 score. The Tigers then bounded back to hand Madisonville a 27-12 score. In the next game the Tigers were a three touchdown underdog but gave a great battle before falling to Hoptown, 7-6. The next week a strong Butler High team of Princeton defeated the Tigers 12-6.

In the final game of the season, the Tigers tangled with the powerful Blue Devils of Grove High, Paris, Tenn. The Grove High team was ranked as the top team in Tennessee and the Tigers rated a 40-60 point underdog by most people. But the Tigers battled the highly favored Paris boys off their feet for three periods before weakening in the last quarter and dropping the game by a 25-0 decision, giving the Tigers a total of 4 wins, 6 losses.

Summary

The Murray High Tigers ended the 1950 basketball season with a ten win-nine loss record. The boys started with a 27-35 loss to Memphis Central. Defeated again by Cairo 48-38, the team bounded up to down Salem to the tune of 88-37. Glin Jeffrey, guard, set two records during that game. Highest individual scoring on the Murray High floor, a record previously held by his father, and highest individual scoring of the season in West Kentucky. Two more defeats followed: Madisonville scoring 59-45, Henderson scoring 52-47. Murray "got hot" again with three successive wins: 57-47 victory over Benton, 58-28 victory over Mayfield, 43-36 over Benton.

Bowling Green topped the Tigers 43-39. A well-known Tilghman team held the team to 47 points and succeeded in dropping in 48. A Murray win: 65-51 over Trigg, followed by 67-33. over Mayfield was added to the record before the boys met and bowed to Lone Oak 46-43. In the West Kentucky Conference the Tigers whipped Morganfield and Madisonville before handing over the title to tough Tilghman. The winner and runner-up met the next week and again Murray bowed, the score board reading 60-50. The season ended with a 56-49 victory over Cairo and a 48-40 victory over Concord. With a record of ten wins and nine losses, the Tigers had racked up a total of 988 points to the 872 total of the opponents.
